Dedication

In appreciation for their unceasing interest in our activities, as well as their fine Catholic example, we, the yearbook staff, proudly dedicate the 1953 edition of the ARROW to the three remaining members of the class of 1892, our first graduating class; Mr. John A. Mette, Mr. Joseph A. Schrage and Mr. Anthony J. Bodde.

Foreword

We, the Seniors and future Alumni of St. Joseph High School, take pride in presenting our yearbook — The Arrow for 1953.

St. Joseph's is one of the oldest and most respected high schools in the state of Michigan. Our teachers, The Brothers of the Christian Schools, have been training young men in the metropolis of Detroit since 1851 under their banner, "Builders of Boys — Makers of Men."

Since the first class of sixty one years ago, St. Joe graduates have gone forth into all phases of business, medicine, politics, and the Church.

What impels the graduates of St. Joe's to strive for positions of such prominence? It is the constant desire to strive to better themselves for God and Country. In other words, it is the traditional "spirit of St. Joe's" which enlightens these graduates. We, the St. Joe's men of tomorrow, hope and pray that we may be able to at least equal the accomplishments of our models — the Alumni of St. Joseph's High School.

Rev. Brother Edward was a member of our faculty from 1946 to 1951. In October of the latter year he was forced to return to New York due to ill health. During the morning of December 16, 1951, while saying his prayers, he passed away.

His friendly smile and good word will always be remembered by his former students at St. Joseph.

The Alumni

Since 1895, our Alumni Association has prospered as has no other organization of a like nature in the country. One of its staunchest friends and ablest boosters has been Mr. Anthony Bodde. He is still laboring today in its interest as he did 60 years ago, being affectionately known by all of us as "The Father of the Alumni."

Many innovations were made a part of the Alumni program each year, among them being the annual festivals which were a great success.

The Christian Brothers have always taken an active interest in the affairs of the association, and it is due to their zealous work and advice that the association has made the record it has and is looked upon by other institutions of its kind throughout the country as an ideal alumni association. It is one of the few alumni societies in the country which undertook to purchase property, build a school and turn it over to the Christian Brothers as a memorial to their former teachers.

Its main principle has always been the furtherance of our Alma Mater and the providing of both spiritual and social benefit to its members.

OFFICERS

The A. D. C. meetings were devoted to the subject of vocations. Guest speakers were either members of the faculty or priests and missionaries of different orders who spoke to the student body on the work of their particular order. During the November meeting Father Ronald, a Capuchin priest, showed slides to the student body on the work and life of the Capuchin Fathers.

Through these meetings the Archconfraternity endeavors to forward Christian ideals of education and to encourage vocations to the priesthood or religious life.

OUR SCHOOL NEWSPAPER, THE BLUE JAY

Way back in the roaring twenties St. Joe's had a yearbook and newspaper called "The Arrow. In 1948 "The Arrow" was revived briefly by Brother C. Stephen who published a graduation issue. After the lapse of one year, Brother Robert started the school paper anew under the title familiar to all St. Joe men, "The Blue Jay". Since then, Brother Eugene (1952), and Brother Peter (1953) have been moderators of the "Blue Jay".

"MUSIC DEPARTMENT"

Throughout all the years of its existance, St. Joseph High School has been blessed with a most spirited and educational music program, consisting of a Band and a Glee Club. A new addition, a musical appreciation course, was started last year.

This program is conducted under the very capable and talented leadership of Mr. Joseph Doto.

This year, St. Joe's Band appeared for the first time in uniform as a marching band, adding even greater enthusiasm to "the spirit of ol' St. Joe's." Both Band and Glee Club are always sure to be on hand for all school activities.

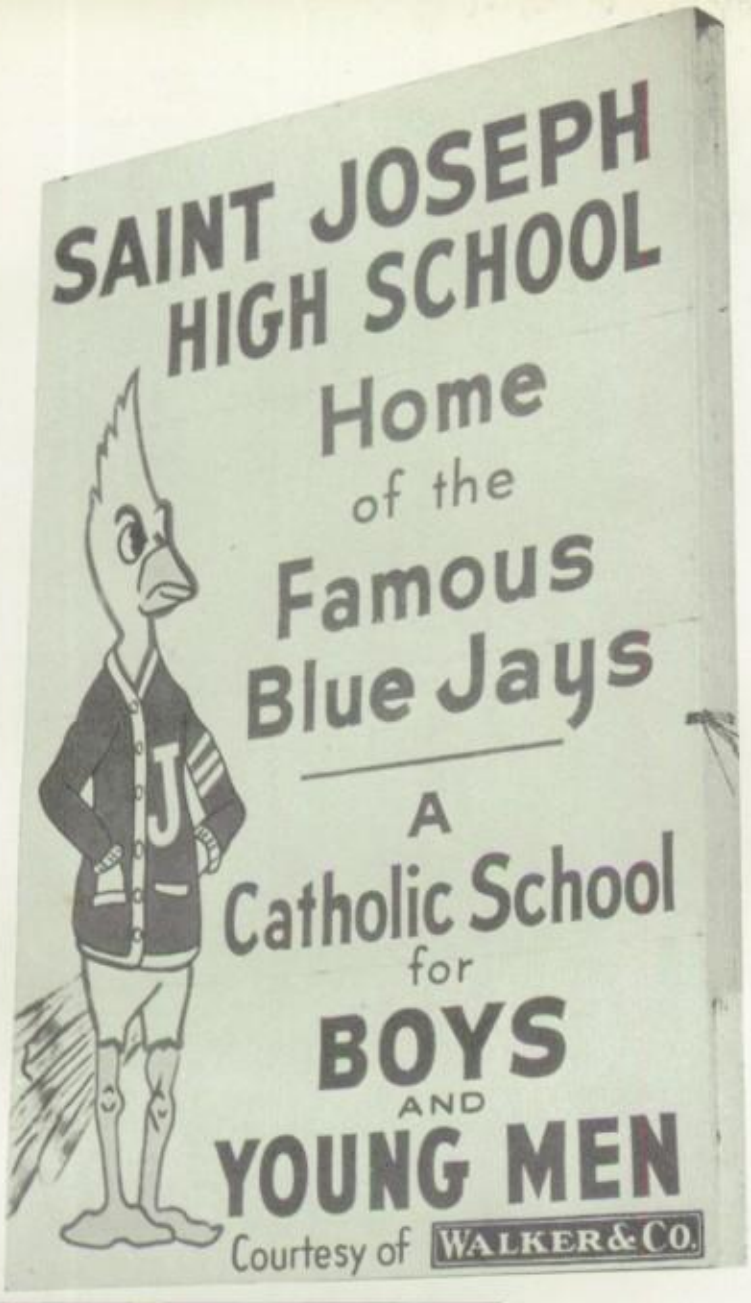
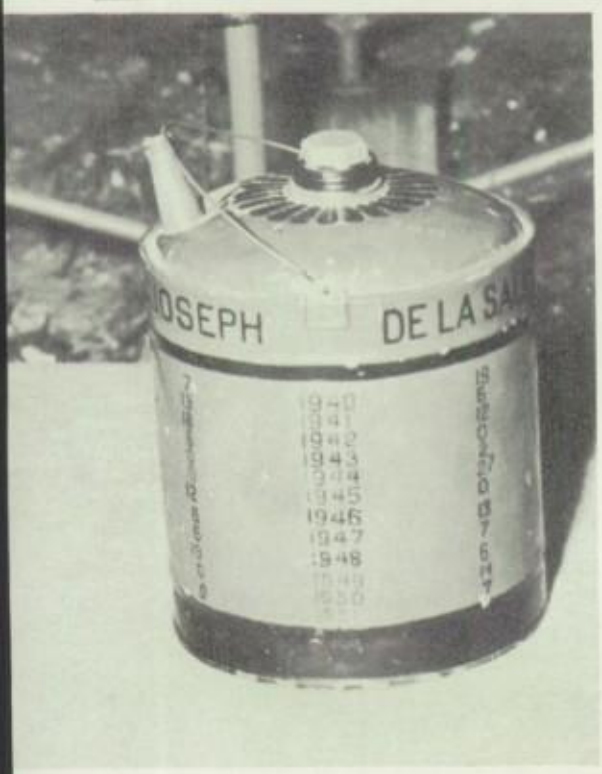
Ready for a tough day



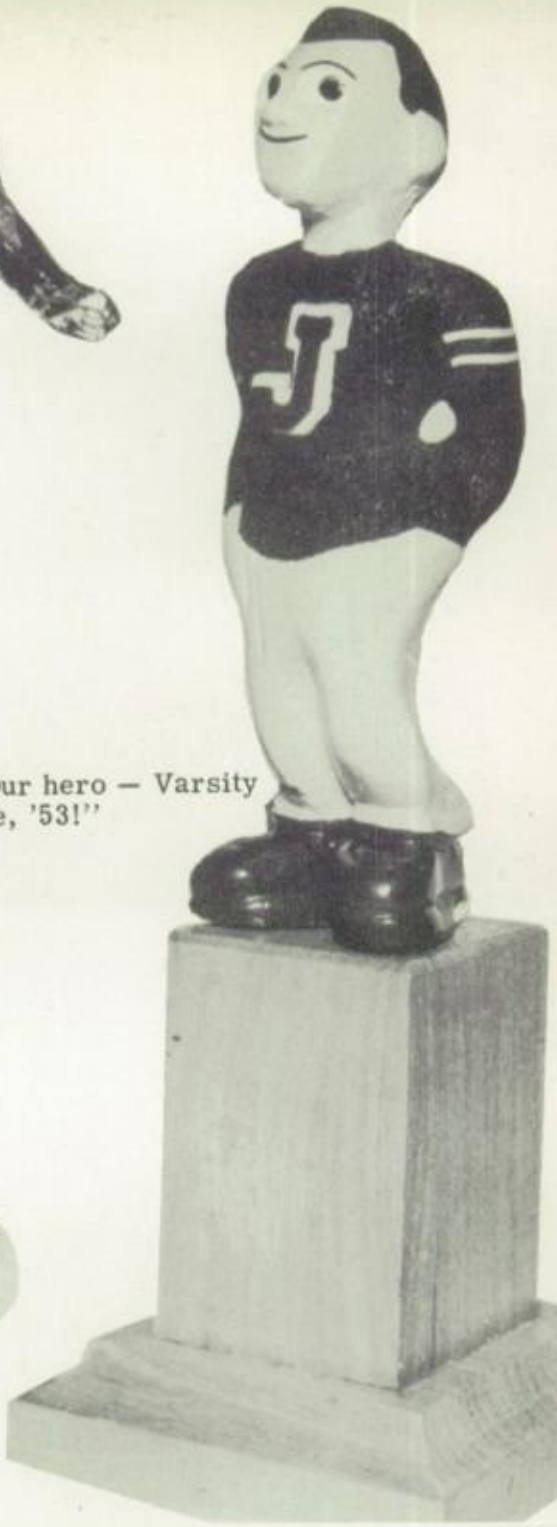


The St. Joe, De La Salle Oil Can has been in competition for the past 26 years. When the St. Joe - De La Salle game rolls around each year, the old oil can is taken down from the shelf, dusted off and for a month before the game is the most talked about oil can in the city of Detroit. On each side of the can is inscribed the date and scores of the St. Joe - De La Salle football games since 1927. Although not the most "shining" relic of the school, it is the most treasured.

Though the can may be battered and rusty, it contains in it something very important! — the traditional spirit of friendly rivalry existing between the two Detroit Christian Brothers Schools.

"From the street car, a famous landmark!"

"Football varsity award — two years of hard work!"



"Our hero — Varsity Joe, '53!"

"Step right in!"

"SONGS AND CHEERS T

Dick Handley, Ron Simon, Connie Peters,

1. BLUEJAYS NEVER YIELD

When Jerry Udell sends out his team,
We'll have you all to know,
That we're the guys behind the guys,
Who fight for 'Ole St. Joe.
We raise our voice in chorus,
to cheer them on the field.
And the foemen learn before the gun,
That the BLUEJAYS never yield.

CHORUS:

The BLUEJAYS never, never, never,
never, never yield.
They fight for Alma Mater dear,
right up and down the field.
They know they're out to win, boys,
and now they're set to go,
They're the mighty, fightin' BLUEJAY TEAM,
That hails from 'OLE ST. JOE.

If I had a daughter sir,
I'd dress her in blue and white,
And send her up into the stands,
To cheer with all her might.
And if I had a son sir,
I'd tell you what he'd do,
He would yeck to heck with Old Purdue,
Like his old man used to do.

7. GET A RIP SAW

Get a rip-saw. Get a buck-saw
Get a rip-saw, buck-saw boom.
Boom! Get a rip-saw bigger than a buck-saw, Boom! Get a buck-saw bigger than a rip-saw,
Keeboo, Kaboo, Sisboo Baa,
St. Joe, St. Joe, Rah, Rah, Rah.

8. HOO SA SA SA

Hoo Sa Sa Sa, Hoo Sa Sa Sa,
Hit'em on the head with a
Big Kielbasa. (Repeat)

2. ST. JOE'S MEN

Oh, St. Joseph's men, let us sound again,
The praise of Blue and White.
Let our voices ring, as we proudly sing,
Let every heart unite.
For St. Joseph's name has been known to fame since the fall of '63,
It always has been glorious,
And it shall ever be!
CHORUS:
Blue and White, fair Blue and White,
For Thee our hearts beat true;
For Thee we'll fight with all our might,
And strive our best to do;
Our Alma Mater, Mother dear,
To serve thee we delight;
So listen to our lusty cheer--RAH! RAH! RAH!
For good old Blue and White.

5. ARE YOU FROM ST. JOE'S

Are you from St. Joe's?
I said, "From St. Joe's--
The "School of Champions," ever will be.
I'm glad to see ya, tell me how be ya,
And the friends I'm longing to see.
Are you from Highland Park, or Royal Oak,
or Centerline?
Any place within the Detroit City Line?
Then cheer for St. Joe's
Hurrah for St. Joe's
I'm from St. Joe's,
I'm from St. Joe's.
I'm from St. Joe's too-oo

HROUGHOUT THE YEARS"

Dan O'Brien, Jim Simon, Ed Freeman

3. ONWARD, ONWARD

All St. Joe's Men
Hear your Alma Mater beckoning
Look once again
To that land of joyous reckoning
Where we will stand
On the heights a mighty conqueror
While our banners wave before the foe,
Let us lend a helping hand.

CHORUS:

So onward, onward All St. Joe's men
We must never stop
Until the banners of our high school
Wave from the very top. Rah! Rah! Rah!
Time will make our conquest complete
Something for all the world to see
So we will Fight, Fight, Fight with all our might
For this Victory.

6. "BIG BLUE WAVE"

Here come that Big Blue Wave right down
the field;
They're fighters all with hearts that never yield;
Across that line they'll crash for victory;
They're bound to win for they will fight for Old St. Joe's
Oh see those stalwarts push into the fray;
They'll do or die for they must win today;
We rise to cheer you men of St. Joe's High;
Get in there: "FIGHT" "FIGHT" "FIGHT"

11. VICTORY YELL

Victory, Victory is our cry.
V-I-C-T-O-R-Y
Are we in it?
Well I guess. St. Joe's,
St. Joe's
Yes, Yes, Yes.

4. ST. JOE'S ALMA MATER

Saint Joseph's men lift up your voices,
And loudly sing thy praises true.
For here we made our loyal choices,
To never change our trust in you,
And may our hearts forever cherish,
The good, the right we always do.
To keep our faith and proudly show,
Our loyalty to you.

II

Long years will never change thy colors.
Nor cares keep thee from thy great goal,
To proudly gather new-found honors,
And ever keep within the fold.
Our heroes' fame no foe shall banish,
Once made remains with us in store,
To show we're proud of old St. Joseph's,
Our High School ever more.
